Interdisciplinary courses on cultural exchange that are highly relevant in today’s globalised world

Based on the perspective that cultures are not contained within ethnically closed, linguistically homogenous and territorially bounded spheres, but constituted through transformations and entanglements

Focus on Asia and Europe with three selectable fields of specialisation: “Society, Economy and Governance”, “Knowledge, Belief and Religion”, or “Visual, Media and Material Culture”

Offered by Heidelberg University, one of the oldest and best universities in Germany with a multifaceted tradition of research and teaching in the humanities and social sciences

Academic exchange with 200 scholars of different educational and cultural background at the Karl Jaspers Centre for Advanced Transcultural Studies

International academic network and links to renowned universities in Asia, Europe, and the United States
